

Copyright 2008 Nurse.com

August 29, 2008

California RNs Named Academy Fellows

Seven California nurse leaders will be among 92 inducted as 2008 American Academy of Nursing fellows Nov. 8 at the Academy's 35th Annual Meeting & Conference in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Each nominee must be sponsored by two current Academy fellows and show how their careers have influenced health policies that have had a positive impact on Americans.

The Californians being inducted are Diane Storer Brown, RN, PhD, FNAHQ, of Kaiser Permanente Northern California Region; Mary D. Knudtson, APRN, DNSc, NP, of University of California, Irvine School of Medicine; Charles Franklin Krozek, RN, MN, of Versant at Childrens Hospital Los Angeles; Mary Elizabeth Lynch, RN, MS, MPH, of UCSF School of Nursing; Ellen Schell, RN, PhD, of Global AIDS Interfaith Alliance in San Francisco; Hildy M. Schell-Chaple, RN, MS, CCNS, of UCSF Medical Center; and Jaynelle Flowers Stichler, RN, DNSc, FACHE, of San Diego State University.